

TEOCAH ARIEAL AINKA DOVE

SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT & COMMUNICATIONS FOR DEVELOPMENT CONSULTANT

Ms. Teocah Arieal Ainka Dove is an interdisciplinary development professional with 10 years third sector experience, 8 years of which have been spent at an executive level, communicating on, designing, providing technical direction on, implementing and/or managing high impact development programmes and social interventions.

Her unique blend of experience runs the gamut of social development (youth, community, women and girls empowerment), project management and communications for development. She has led a range of projects either for, and/or, in collaboration with, governments and private sector institutions, civil society, foreign missions and regional and international development organizations.

In recognition of her work & contributions over the years, Teocah has been recognized by several prestigious bodies, most notably among them, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, who conferred Teocah with the QYL Award at Buckingham Palace and His Majesty King Mohammed VI, OCP Policy Center - Morocco, who recognized her as one of the 40 emerging leaders from across the Atlantic.

A British Chevening scholar, Teocah holds an MSc in Gender and International Relations from the University of Bristol. She also holds degrees in Media and Communications (BA Hons) and Journalism and Public Relations (AAS) with professional certifications from the University of Cambridge and several international institutions.

Founder of the Teocah Dove Foundation, Teocah also co-owns a social enterprise, Hacoet Catering Services. A One Young World Ambassador (Canada) and World Economic Forum Global Shaper (POS Hub), Teocah is also an Associate Fellow of Royal Commonwealth Society (UK), alumni of the Caribbean Institute for Women in Leadership (Barbados) and the Atlantic Dialogues, OCP Policy Center Emerging Leader Fellow (Morocco).

Teocah is presently working on two pivotal regional projects, she is a part of the team of Consultants tasked with producing the Caribbean Development Bank's first gender-sensitive and socially-inclusive youth development youth policy and operational strategy; and also serves as an ICT Consultant with the LINKAGES project, where she is spearheading the implementation of an ICT strategy which will allow key populations access to a range of HIV prevention services, care and support so as to reduce HIV transmission among key populations and improve their enrollment and retention in care.

ONLINE

teocah@teochdove.org

<https://goo.gl/fNsFEf>