PROMOTING/SUPPORTING INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONS

Some recommendations for facilitation of intergenerational relations based on an assessment of the changing structures of the family, community and workplace in the Caribbean and the role of the "old" v/s the "young"

Sean A. Davis

Deputy Chairman – Youth Advisory Council of Jamaica Interim General Secretary – National Youth Council of Jamaica

INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONS IN THE CARIBBEAN FAMILY/COMMUNITY

| ISSUES  | PRESENT REALITY  | RECOMMENDATIONS  |
|---|--|--|
| Family Time (Dining,Story Telling and otherfolklore) — usuallyfacilitates culturalretention | <ul><li>Eating out</li><li>Bedroom dining</li><li>Eating on the go</li><li>Movies on gadgets</li></ul> | <ul> <li>Encourage the transfer of cultural practices in households via revaluing of 'family time'</li> <li>All generations in the family should collaborate and decide on a time where they can relax, reflect and progress together, including via technology</li> <li>Aid in language transfer</li> </ul> |
| Respect (mutual)  | -Disregard for either categories; -Youth acquire 'new knowledge' as regard same as the 'lone facts'    | -Younger folks need to initiate beingrespectful, listen and try to dissect;-"Younger generation must seek tocomprehend that not everything oldis outdated and older folks must beready to accept positive change"  |

INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONS IN THE CARIBBEAN FAMILY/COMMUNITY

| ISSUES  | PRESENT REALITY   | RECOMMENDATIONS   |
|---|---|---|
| Culture of telling "WHATS" but not "WHYS"             | - Enquiring youth thatdo not take things 'atface value' | - Older generation to start includingthe "whys" to build greaterappreciation  |
| HEALTH PROMOTION: Strong use of plants (herbs/bushes) | -Side effects considered- Uncertainty of fullpurpose    | - Knowledge transfer via a formal base (re "purpose"); tap into knowledge that might have aided with ailments and facilitate longevity -Increase research                     |
| COMMUNICATION: Face to face; word of mouth;           | -Social Media and other technologies are dominant               | -Youth organizations doing outreachwhere older folks are taught to usethe various technologies-Establish Institutes for seniorswhich may also bring in income |

GENERATION Z

AKA: iGeneration (iGen) Post-Millenials Homeland Generation

AKA: Generation Y Echo Boomers Boomerang Generation

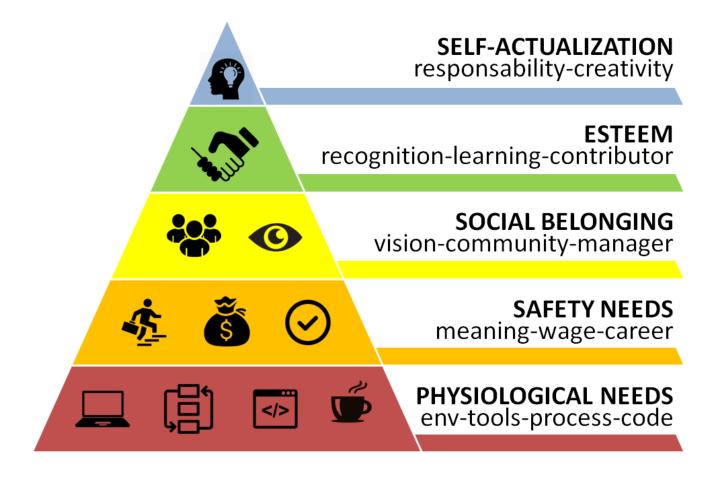

AKA: Latch-key kids MTV Generation 13th Generation

- Millennials are dominating the workforce
  - Those born between 1980 & 1996
  - Racially diverse
  - Often politically, religiously and conjugally unattached
  - Linked by social media
  - Affected by debt
  - Optimistic

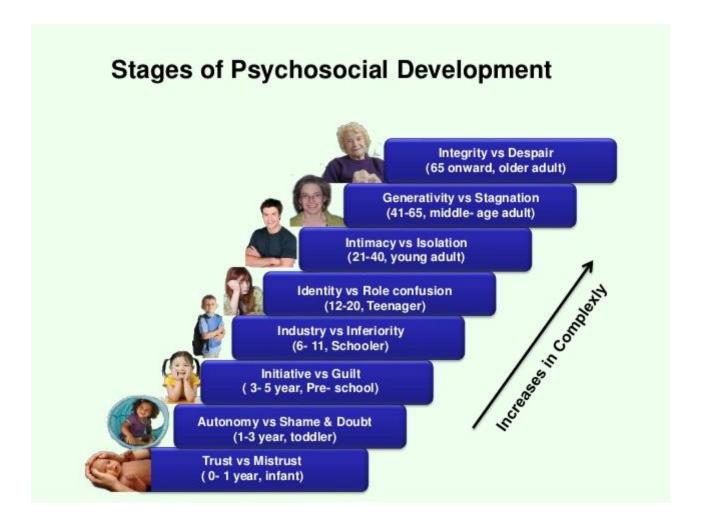

- Millennials often supervise older members of staff
  - Mutual Respect, appreciation of varied expertise are important
- Older staff who supervise millennials are required to focus on the changing needs of employees
  - EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT becoming more important than COMPENSATION
  - Feeling Valued is important
  - Social Engagement with co-professionals held build bonds that can translate in the work environment

- The embracing of Flexi-Work Hours seemingly facilitate enhanced productivity
- Allows for more personal and career development
- Virtual Working (working from home) is appreciated as persons want to be able to 'home-school' children, do various other activities and still commit to fulfilling work requirements

INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONS

INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONS

INTERGENERATIONAL RELATIONS

